Generosity is a virtue. Who has been generous to you and me? To whom have we been generous?

Elijah (1 Kings 17:10-16) is on a journey. He receives a command from the Lord to go to Zarephath. Elijah encounters a widow and requests water and bread. The widow is hesitant to fulfill the prophet's request as she has few supplies and is afraid she will not be able to take care of her son and herself.

The prophet invites her to not be afraid. After she does fulfill the prophet's request, there is enough flour and oil for herself and her son for an entire year.

Generosity given; generosity returned.

When have you and I been afraid to be generous? When have we hoarded and not shared?

In Mark's Gospel story (Mk.12:41-44), we encounter another woman. She is generous in her offering to the treasury in the temple. She gave not out of excess but her poverty. She was generous beyond her means—an example of sacrificial giving and generosity.

How has God, through the love of His Son, been generous to us? Jesus came in the generous poverty and humility of the Incarnation to bring us the gift of our salvation. (Hebrews 9: 24-28)

If we were to write down some of the generous gifts that have come from God and others, what would be on our list? How have we been blessed? How have we tried to be a blessing to others? How have we been generous with our time, talent, and treasure? Who have been examples of generosity in our lives? How do we share generosity with others?

Generosity is a virtue.

November... and the "Book of Life"

November is customarily a month for remembering those who have died. In November, the natural world starts to move toward winter, and night's darkness comes earlier each day.

During the month of November, you will find our "Book of Life" by the statue of Sts. Francis and Clare, near the Sister Death window. You are invited to inscribe the names of all of your loved ones who have died. We will remember all the names of the people inscribed in this book in our prayers at all the Masses throughout the month of November.

Thanksgiving Day Mass November 28 at 10 am.

For what we have received from God's bounty, we return to the Lord with gratitude! Join in this festive liturgy where the community gives thanks together.

We invite you to bring food for the poor to Mass on this day. This invitation is always open. But on this day, even though the food will not reach the needy in time for Thanksgiving dinner, it will visibly connect this holiday to our service of the poor and can help to replenish the shelves of local food distribution programs after Thanksgiving. Many people bring canned or dry food to Mass for the poor each week—thank you for faithfully and generously remembering our poor brother and sisters in this way!

The 5th Annual Casa Creche Festival
December 14–15

Do you have a special nativity set that you'd like to share?

To loan your nativity set for this special event, or be involved in the festival, please email us at crechefestival@thecasa.org.

You might want to help set up the displays or be a host for the event, which is open to the public. Christmas is such an important part of the Franciscan story. Let us know how you'd like to be a part of this fun and unique event.

"Taizé Prayer Around the Cross" 2nd and 4th Wednesdays at 7 pm.

Join us this Wednesday, November 13

"Taizé prayer" consists of short sung chants, Scripture readings, and periods of silence which give the service a meditative character. The service typically lasts about 35–40 minutes.

Special Collection on November 23–24 for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD)

More than 37 million people in the United States live in poverty. This collection supports programs that empower people to “break the cycle of poverty” and identify and address the obstacles they face in bringing permanent and positive change to their communities.

When you support CCHD, you help local communities across the country innovate and work together to solve their own unique challenges.

You are essential to its success. Thank You.

Place your donation in an envelope and mark it CCHD. Bring it to Mass on Sunday November 24. Learn more about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development at www.usccb.org/cchd.

Mark your calendars now.

Plan to Shop Fair Trade for Christmas.

Sunday Morning Only
December 8

In the Hospitality area after the morning Masses. Find chocolate and coffee and other local crafts (tba). Great holiday and hostess gifts.

COMMUNITY CONNECTION

For over 73 years, God has blessed the Franciscan Renewal Center with a mission of spiritual growth, healing and transformation, and service to others. From the friars to the staff and the countless faithful who have come for retreats, church, conferences, or simply for peace, the Casa has become a place where God's love is felt and shared.

Directed by your input, we see a vision built on four key pillars: Supporting Our Church, Maintaining Our Grounds, Nurturing Our Retreats, and Strengthening Our Ministries. These pillars ensure that the Casa remains a thriving spiritual home, and we are all invited to participate in this future, each with our own gifts and talents.

How can you be a steward of God's gifts? Perhaps you feel called to serve as a lector, Eucharistic minister, or sacristan during Mass. Maybe you have a green thumb and would like to help care for the beautiful grounds that provide a peaceful space for so many. Or you might sponsor someone in need of spiritual renewal through one of our retreats.

Your faithful support strengthens our ministries, such as faith formation, social justice efforts, spiritual direction, and counseling. These programs are vital to the heart of the Casa, and we cannot sustain them without you.

This year, our Annual Appeal seeks to raise $510,000 to maintain and grow these vital services. Will you now join me making a lasting difference? Every contribution, no matter the size, continues to serve with love and hope that supports a community where all are welcome. — In Christ's peace, Father Page

About the Franciscan Renewal Center

The Franciscan Renewal Center is a place for spiritual growth, healing, and community that is open to everyone, regardless of faith. Activities include:

- Weekday (Mon. – Fri.) and Weekend Masses at Our Lady of the Angels Church
- Meetings and conferences for religious and nonprofit groups
- Therapy, counseling, and support groups
- Education, retreats, and events
- Family faith formation and Young Adult ministry
- Volunteer ministries, including those in service of the poor and vulnerable
- Spiritual direction

The Franciscan Renewal Center (the Casa) was founded in 1951 by the Order of Friars Minor as a Catholic retreat, called Casa de Paz y Bien. It remains an active religious community that seeks to follow in the footsteps of Saints Francis and Clare of Assisi. The Casa works cooperatively with the Diocese of Phoenix.
