The Gospel reading this week tells us a story of Jesus standing up in his hometown synagogue and reading a passage from the prophet Isaiah. We are told that he deliberately searched for a particular passage within the scroll that was handed to him. Then, after reading it, he says to everyone that “Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.”

Make no mistake, Jesus was unveiling his Mission Statement. His mission is to bring glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, sight to the blind, freedom to the oppressed, and a year of abolishing debts to everyone. And of course, we know that this is also our mission today as Christ’s Body.

But how often do we think of ourselves as the poor, the captive, the blind, the oppressed, and the indebted? It seems that most of us (including myself) have a much easier time accepting the role of being the servant than the one being served. It seems that most of us would much rather serve the Lord by serving others than have the Lord serve us through the compassion of others (remember Peter at the washing of the feet).

As much as it is true that we, as disciples of Jesus must join Him in His mission, we must also recognize that we are the recipients as well, otherwise we exclude ourselves from Jesus’ ministry. We are all poor, all captives, all blind, all oppressed, and all indebted in some way. Are we willing to be ministered to?

Blessing of the newly renovated lodging rooms in Rose Court, roadways, and parking lot

Sunday, January 26 at 12:30 pm

Join us after the 11 am Mass as we give thanks and bless the newly renovated lodging rooms in the Rose Court, as well as the improved roadways, parking lot and beautiful landscaping.

Take this opportunity to tour the improved rooms, appreciate the enhancements, and meet the dedicated workers who persevered through the summer heat to complete the project. We also extend our heartfelt gratitude to the generosity of the Diane and Bruce Halle Foundation whose financial gift made these renovations possible, and to the York family for their generosity with the landscaping improvements, as well.

Mass with the Anointing of the Sick Saturday, February 22 at 10:30 am

All are welcome to attend this special Mass.

When the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is given, the hoped-for effect is that, if it be God's will, the person be physically healed of illness. However, the primary effect is a spiritual healing by which the sick person receives the Holy Spirit's gift of peace and courage to deal with the difficulties that accompany serious illness or the frailty of old age.

Bringing Holy Communion to Those Who Aren't Able to Come to Church

Pastoral Ministers are available to visit registered members of the Conventual Church of Our Lady of the Angels who are homebound and cannot attend Sunday Mass. Please call the Casa at 480.948.7460 to request a visit. We look forward to your call and the opportunity to serve.

A lay minister will return your call and arrange for a visit. These lay men and women are commissioned to bring Eucharist to those who are unable to attend Mass because of sickness, disability, or aging. These volunteer ministers provide prayer and an opportunity to receive Holy Communion—as well as fellowship time and sharing news from the Casa to help keep us all in communion with one another.

We are very grateful for the dedicated men and women of this beautiful ministry.

We hope everyone feels welcome when they come to Mass at the Casa. But what happens if you get sick, have surgery, or are just no longer able to get here for Mass? How do you still feel connected? What if a family member is stuck at home?

“One of the Corporal Works of Mercy is to visit the sick. When I bring Holy Communion to someone who is homebound, I feel like I am visiting a family member, even though we are not related.”

Perhaps you feel called to serve in this ministry. Teams of two visit those who are homebound and bring the Lord to our brothers and sisters when they need Him the most. Contact the liturgy office staff (listed below) to learn more about this ministry.

COMMUNITY CONNECTION

At the beginning of last year, I joined the Franciscan Renewal Center and researched available volunteer opportunities. I retired in 2021 after twenty years working in conservation education, protection, and restoration of habitat. It was a deeply rewarding career helping educate people about the importance of saving the biodiversity of our Earth's plants, animals, and ecosystems.

I became interested in the Care for Creation ministry because I wanted to connect with like-minded people with my same passions. The Laudato Si' movement has been instrumental in renewing my faith and connection with church. The Care for Creation Ministry is helping grow campus and community awareness for sustainability in our daily lives. The volunteers and energy in the group are amazing as they inspire me to develop ideas together and see real-time, positive impacts in our community.

The Care for Creation Ministry is currently organizing a Gardening Sustainably in the Desert workshop in late February with the Desert Foothills Land Trust titled "Desert Gardening for Pollinators." It will be a great opportunity for everyone to learn about native Sonoran plants and trees that utilize less water and attract native pollinators. Please look for more details in the bulletin or register for this event at frc.retreatportal.com. It will be a great time to meet others and learn to help care for our environment.

As the new year begins, I am excited to continue growth in my Franciscan faith journey with the Casa and its many ministries. I hope that you will find a ministry that expands your heart and touches your soul.

—Blessings,
Ed Weigand
