Two weeks ago today, I had my second cataract procedure. I did not realize how “foggy” my vision had become. But, even after two weeks, I am still amazed at how brilliant colors look, the amazing variety of blossoms this year, and how green everything is. It’s as if I had never seen grass before!

Speaking of grass, the liturgical color has returned to green, symbolizing the long season of growing — not only crops, and yes, grass, but also our faith. The name “Ordinary Time” doesn’t convey its importance very well. The real meaning is not “mundane,” but “ordered,” or even “ordained” — Ordinary time means time that is ordered, as if each day were another step toward a deeper relationship with God through Christ. Ordinary time is “ordained” time — time made holy by the presence of Christ, who, by entering into our time-bound existence, has made all time holy.

In last week’s Gospel, Jesus and his entourage crossed a border into Samaria, where Jews were unwelcome. The feeling was mutual, as Jews considered Samaritans unworthy of existence. Jesus rejects His disciples’ offer to “call down fire from Heaven” to teach the unreceptive Samaritans a lesson. Instead, He resolutely continues His journey to Jerusalem, where He will fulfill the purpose of His life on this earth.

As followers of Jesus, what will our clearest vision tell us about acceptance, borders, and the dignity of every human life? Our nation has been spending up to $775 per day per person* to incarcerate refugees, including toddlers separated from their parents. That’s enough for three rooms at the Phoenician, and they would give you a toothbrush. Seeing more clearly is a gift, but also a challenge. Have we seen enough, yet? What would Francis do? What would Jesus do? What will we do?

*Cost for housing in “tent cities,” from Dept. of Health & Human Services, reported by NBC June 21, 2019. Cost per bed in other facilities as reported by ICE ranges from $139 - $200 per person per day.

Peace and Good,

Rick Hardy, Director of Adult Education & Retreats
Fr. Augustus Tolton 1854 – 1897

Father Augustus Tolton was the first Roman Catholic priest in the United States publicly known to be black. Born the son of slaves in Missouri, he was a former slave himself, who was baptized and reared Catholic. Tolton studied for priesthood in Rome as no American seminary would accept a man of his race. He was ordained at the Easter Vigil, 1886 at the Roman Archbasilica of St. John Lateran. He was assigned to the diocese of Alton, IL (now Springfield, IL) and first ministered to his home parish in Quincy, Illinois. Tolton eventually was sent to Chicago, where he ran development and construction of St. Monica’s Catholic Church as a black national parish church. The church was never completed beyond the first level, and Fr. Tolton inquired an untimely death on July 9, 1897.

Where does one start the story of a man’s life? Many people are interested in genealogy, and these people trace their personal life-stories back many generations. In some cases, it is difficult to trace the ancestry of American slaves of the 19th century, as they were often bought and sold at auctions, oftentimes re-sold, and there were families broken up with no one keeping accurate records. To read more about Fr. Tolton’s biography, visit https://tolton.archchicago.org.

On June 11, 2019, Pope Francis advanced the Cause for Sainthood of The Servant of God Rev. Augustus Tolton and seven others. Upon the promulgation of this decree by the pope, Tolton is deemed “Venerable,” which formally recognizes he lived the theological virtues of faith, hope, and charity and the cardinal virtues of prudence, justice, fortitude, and temperance at a heroic level. “We welcome this news from the Holy Father on the advancement of Fr. Tolton’s cause for sainthood,” said Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, archbishop of Chicago. “Fr. Tolton's holiness comes from his patient suffering, his brave spirit, and his pastoral heart for all who came to him. His struggles to become a priest and his remarkable service to God’s People are admirable examples, particularly in these times of the value and dignity of every person.

Special Collection Next Weekend for Black and Native American Missions

Next weekend, we will participate in the annual appeal for the Black and Native American Missions. Established in 1884, the Black and Indian Mission Office supervises the collection and distributes these funds as diocesan grants. The support they receive makes it possible to provide much needed assistance and resources to our American Indian brothers and sisters. Through the years, the funds from the annual appeal have been responsible for continuing the Church’s faithful in supporting the evangelization needs of the Black and Native American communities in the United States.

For those of you who have opted to use our Collection Envelope program, you will find an extra envelope for this purpose in your pack. As is our custom, there will be only one collection during Mass, so please drop this envelope, along with your envelope for your gift to the Casa, in the collection basket. In case you do not usually use the weekly envelope program, or if you forget your envelope, you can always get an extra envelope in the Narthex or at the Front Desk.

Are you considering becoming a Catholic? Are you seeking full initiation into the Roman Catholic church?

If so, then you are invited to explore, “A Journey in Faith: The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).” The RCIA is the sacramental formation process that prepares individuals for living the Christian life in the Roman Catholic community and tradition. The RCIA sessions will begin in October. The first four “inquiry sessions” are designed to help you discern whether or not you want to continue on this Journey in Faith through full initiation into the Roman Catholic Church at Easter. Please call Kathleen Garast at 480.483.3803 for more information. You can also email us at rcia@thecasa.org.
Family Faith Activities   July 7   The Fourteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

REFLECTION: When growing up, did you ever think about being a missionary, sent out into the world to help people and share your faith? As adults, it seems natural to say, “I wish I could, but I have a family, a job, responsibilities, etc.” But we cannot get out of the call of being missionaries and evangelizers that easily. Today, Jesus sends out 72 in pairs, saying it would be difficult — they would be like lambs among wolves. What a scary proposition! Guess what, we are all invited to discipleship — right here, right now. Doing this can take many forms. We proclaim the Kingdom of God to our families, to our co-workers, even to our neighbors. Sometimes we don’t even realize we are doing this! We proclaim in the words we say and the actions that we take. Showing God’s love in a single gesture of caring or kindness, or simply accepting another person is a way of sharing the Kingdom of God. Challenges, yes. Rewards, double yes!

CONVERSATION: How do you let others know about your faith?

PROCLAMATION/DISCUSSION: Read: Luke 10:1-9
- Why does Jesus send out the 72 in pairs? What are they supposed to do?
- What should they do when they go to someone’s house? What if they are not welcome? How do they feel when they get back?

ACTION: Plan a family evening that includes prayer, Scripture, and an activity. For an action, discuss ways that each family member will show love for God, neighbor, and him or herself during the coming week.

PRAYER: Dear Jesus, thank You for sharing your good news with us. Help us to share it with others by what we say and do. Amen.

Today, we hear about the manner in which Jesus sent out His disciples. He sent them in pairs without money, belongings, or even sandals. They were to preach: "Peace to this household" and "The kingdom of God is at hand." Saint Francis took this quite literally when he heard it. What do you hear? We are sent with that same bold message. We are called to bring the peace of Christ into homes and to proclaim that the kingdom of God is right there, right here in our midst. Do we take this charge seriously?

VOLUNTEER VOICE – Ordinary People, Extraordinary Hearts!

Changes are coming to the Casa Safe Environment Program

The Franciscan Renewal Center is committed to keeping all children and vulnerable adults safe. One of the best ways we can do this is by creating a safe environment for everyone. Following the guidelines of the USCCB, we are implementing our own program unique to the Casa. Our new program will be unveiled later this summer. Stay tuned in the coming weeks for more information about all the changes we will be making.

For volunteer opportunities, contact Pat Bennier at volunteer@thecasa.org or 480.355.0361

Casa Grounds for Solidarity
Selling Fair Trade Coffee
Next sale is July 13 & 14

Café Justo coffee sales give hope in the face of desperation by providing a viable living wage.

Café Justo is excellent, pure, organic coffee; and the taste is even more delicious knowing that you are reducing poverty for Mexican families. Our yearly goal is to sell 1,200 pounds of coffee so that an extended family can remain on their lands.

Will you help us meet our goal?
Look for our tables in the Hospitality area after Mass. If you would like to join the ministry, contact Eileen Waldron at: casagrounds@thecasa.org.

Backpack Drive for Catholic Charities and André House
July 20 & 21 at all Masses

The annual backpack drive benefits the children in foster care and the homeless guests at André House. This drive is organized and led by Family Catechesis and Youth Programs. Contact James to volunteer: youth@thecasa.org.

Catholic Charities:
• Backpacks: should be kid and/or youth friendly, of good quality.
• School supplies: Elmer’s white glue sticks (not blue), Crayola brand crayons, markers & colored pencils, Ticonderoga #2 pencils.
• They always need: scissors, rulers, composition books, Dry Erase markers, pens, erasers, loose leaf paper, notebooks, new binders, etc.
• Keep school supplies separate from the backpacks when dropping off.

André House: Backpacks have replaced the plastic bags guests had been using for their belongings. Father Tom Doyle, the Director of André House, wrote: “There is a tremendous need as our guests carry their whole lives on their backs.” Large, sturdier backpacks would be greatly appreciated.

There will be two drive up/drop off locations for this collection: the east parking lot and the west parking lot. On Sunday night, only the east parking lot will be open.

Monetary donations are welcomed, too. These will go to the Catholic Charities Foster Care Program.

Mindful Meditation

When we contemplate the meaning and impact of a world of nonviolence we often fail to include our self in the equation. Many of us are deaf to the voice of our inner critic; those inner violent narrative tapes playing on repeat. The first place to begin in the development of nonviolence is to go within and become aware of how we relate to our self. This course will provide the science, strategies, skills and meditative practice experience necessary for developing a nonviolent relationship with our self. Change ourselves, and we change our world.

Fee: $50, Includes lunch. Pre-registration required.

Leaving a Legacy

I’ve been Catholic since I was born, but the Franciscans expanded my spirituality and helped me understand what it meant to be Catholic. I never knew how joyful my faith could be.

I actually found the Casa after a Google search and just fell in love with this place. I joined, and soon began volunteering for several ministries. The next thing I knew, I was on staff here, supporting the capital campaign and the sustainability committee, and eventually becoming a Tau member. I can say without question, it is the most fulfilling job I’ve ever had — and I’ve had some good jobs!

Working here, I know how important it is to pay for our daily things and keep operations going, but as I continued my spiritual journey, I realized that I wanted to provide for our future as well. If I just give to our current needs, “when it’s gone, it’s gone.” When I made an endowment gift and joined the La Verna Legacy Society, it was an investment in our future. My money will never stop earning and it can do good, even after I am gone.

I am not a wealthy woman. I never had children, but I have many nieces and nephews. I knew if I left each of them something, it would just be a pittance, but if I leave it to the Casa, my money will keep working and I could leave a legacy. I learned from working on the capital campaign that it doesn’t matter how much money you have. It all adds up, and each of us can make a difference. If you have questions about the endowment fund or La Verna Legacy Society, please contact Mary Dunn at endowment@thecasa.org or 480.355.0345.

A Season for Nonviolence
CHANGING YOUR WORDS CAN CHANGE THE WORLD!

The Casa has recognized, supported and promoted the Season for Nonviolence (SNV) in the past 17 years of its 21-year campaign. This international grassroots movement is dedicated to demonstrating nonviolence as a powerful way to heal, transform and empower our lives and our communities. Traditionally, the Season spans 64 days, beginning with the memorial anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi and ending with that of Martin Luther King, Jr. In addition to honoring these 64 days, the Casa offers programs focused on peace throughout the year.

Certificate Program
Nonviolence Leadership in the Way of St. Francis is the Casa’s certificate program in facilitating nonviolent dialogue and action. This can be used in a variety of situations, including schools, HOA meetings, the workplace, and personal relationships. You can also gain career-leveraging conflict management skills...the opportunities are limitless! Visit thecasa.org/peace-nonviolence for more information.
