“Peace be with you.”
Casa de Paz y Bien — House of Peace and Good

Peace. As Catholics who have made this place our spiritual home, it’s kind of what we are all about, right? Many of us on staff here at the Franciscan Renewal Center even sign our emails with that word. But what is peace? Is it simply a lack of conflict? Or does it go far deeper than that?

Peace is when your soul can exhale. Peace is what happens when you realize that nothing but love and light surround you. I once heard peace defined in a homily just beautifully: “Peace is knowing what you need, having what you need, and...knowing you have what you need.”

It is that last part that most people have trouble with. How often can we take a pause and realize, “I know what I need, I have what I need, and I know I have what I need?”

Jesus said, “My peace I give to you and my peace I leave with you.” We have His peace! He makes sure of that. We have what we need.

So, here is what I would like to offer: In our society we tend to find ourselves very busy. We have stress beyond measure, and peace has become a commodity that is in short supply. But, I would present a challenge to us. Let’s not wear our business as a badge of honor. Instead, find the peace that Christ gave you — the peace that says, “I know what I need. I have what I need. I know I have what I need.” Sink into that. Find your space and take a deep, cleansing breath in that truth, because when others perceive the peace of Christ within you, that’s when you can truly share the peace of Christ with them.

Peace and Good,

Donna Kinzie, Family Catechesis & Infant Baptism Coordinator
Are you considering becoming a Catholic?

If so, then you are invited to explore “A Journey in Faith: The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).” The RCIA is the sacramental formation process that prepares individuals for living the Christian life in the Roman Catholic community and tradition. The RCIA sessions will begin in October. The first four “inquiry sessions” are designed to help you discern whether or not you want to continue on this Journey in Faith through full initiation into the Roman Catholic Church at Easter. Please call Kathleen Garast at 480.483.3803 for more information. You can also email us at rcia@thecasa.org.

St. Kateri Tekakwitha

Feast day is July 14

St. Kateri is the first Native American to be recognized as a saint by the Catholic Church. She was born in 1656 in a Mohawk village. Her mother was an Algonquin who was captured by the Mohawks and who took a Mohawk chief for her husband. She contracted smallpox as a four-year-old child, and her entire family died during the outbreak. She was subsequently raised by her uncle, who was the chief of a Mohawk clan. At age 19, Kateri converted to Catholicism, taking a vow of chastity and pledging to marry only Jesus Christ. Her decision was very unpopular, and some of her neighbors started rumors of sorcery. To avoid persecution, she traveled to a Christian native community south of Montreal. Kateri was very devout and was known for her steadfast devotion. Sadly, just five years after her conversion to Catholicism, she became ill and passed away at age 24 on April 17, 1680. Her name, Kateri, is the Mohawk form of Catherine, which she took from St. Catherine of Siena. She was canonized by Pope Benedict XVI on Oct. 21, 2012. She is the patroness of ecology and the environment, people in exile, and Native Americans.

The Casa Choir

The Casa Choir will resume regular weekly rehearsals in September, every Tuesday evening from 7 - 9 pm. Choir members must be able to sight-read music notation and sing with a pleasing voice. Previous choir experience is very helpful. To schedule an audition, contact Norbert at norbert@thecasa.org.

The Casa Choir sings for special Franciscan feast days, at Thanksgiving and Christmas, and for all of the liturgies during Holy Week.

If you are interested in auditioning for the choir, please contact Norbert at norbert@thecasa.org.

Special Collection this weekend for Black and Native American Missions

This weekend, we will participate in the annual appeal for the Black and Native American Missions. Established in 1884, the Black and Indian Mission Office supervises the collection and distributes these funds as diocesan grants. The support they receive makes it possible to provide much-needed assistance and resources to our American Indian brothers and sisters. Through the years, the funds from the annual appeal have been responsible for continuing the Church’s faithful in supporting the evangelization needs of the Black and Native American communities in the United States.

For those of you who have opted to use our Collection Envelope program, you will find an extra envelope for this purpose in your pack.

Other upcoming special collections:

- Aug. 11  Special Needs (for the church in Africa/Latin America/Eastern Europe)
- Sept. 15  The Catholic University
- Sept. 29  Franciscan Missionary Union
July 14       The Fifteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

REFLECTION: The road from Jerusalem to Jericho is made up of narrow passes and rocky terrain — a perfect place for bandits to lay in wait. Today, we hear that a man was attacked and left for dead on the side of the road. A priest comes by, but instead of helping, he crosses to the other side of the road. Another religious person, a Levite, comes by and also crosses the street. Finally, a Samaritan, the Israelite’s most hated neighbor, comes upon the man and stops to help him. In this Gospel, Jesus has demolished all boundary expectations. It is not social definitions such as class, religion, gender, or ethnicity that determines who our neighbor is. A neighbor is someone who acts with compassion toward another. The point becomes not who deserves to be loved as I love myself, but that I become a person who treats everyone with compassion, difficult as that may be at times.

CONVERSATION: How can you be a good neighbor?

- Who is the neighbor in the Good Samaritan story?
- Why does Jesus tell this story?
- What does Jesus teach about how we should treat others?

ACTION: Above and Beyond: You don’t need to help a needy stranger to do something more than what is expected. Take a list of chores, for instance (if your family doesn’t have a list, make one). As your family does their chores, encourage them to go beyond the list. Have them write down what they did that was not expected. Post their lists under the phrase "Above and Beyond." Celebrate their achievements with a special dessert and a prayer of thanks. (Wordsunday.com)

PRAYER: Dear God, help us to love You with all our heart, and to love and care for one another. Amen.

"The moments we share are the moments we keep forever." Author unknown
All the readings today speak about following God's law of love. Even in Moses’ time, it was clear that God's law isn't some far-off, difficult thing to understand. It is written on our hearts. We know when we are loving and we know when we're not. Jesus' words are imprinted upon us, and were present from the beginning of time. Like the scholar of the law who questions Jesus, we sometimes wish there were exceptions, so we could justify our lack of loving behavior. But, Jesus insists that we know what is right. Like the good Samaritan, we are called to treat people with mercy.

Changes are coming to the Casa Safe Environment Program

The Franciscan Renewal Center is committed to keeping all children and vulnerable adults safe. One of the best ways we can do this is by creating a safe environment for everyone. Following the guidelines of the USCCB, we are implementing our own program unique to the Casa. Our new program will be unveiled later this summer. Stay tuned in the coming weeks for more information about all the changes we will be making.

For volunteer opportunities, contact Pat Bennier at volunteer@thecasa.org or 480.355.0361
Backpack Drive for Catholic Charities and André House
July 20 & 21 at all Masses

The annual backpack drive benefits the children in foster care and the homeless guests at André House. This drive is organized and led by Family Catechesis and Youth Programs. Contact James to volunteer: youth@thecasa.org.

Catholic Charities:
- Backpacks: should be kid and/or youth friendly, of good quality.
- School supplies: Elmer’s white glue sticks (not blue), Crayola brand crayons, markers & colored pencils, Ticonderoga #2 pencils.
- They always need: scissors, rulers, composition books, Dry Erase markers, pens, erasers, loose leaf paper, notebooks, new binders, etc.
- Keep school supplies separate from the backpacks when dropping off.

André House: Backpacks have replaced the plastic bags guests had been using for their belongings. Father Tom Doyle, the Director of André House, wrote: “There is a tremendous need as our guests carry their whole lives on their backs.” Large, sturdier backpacks would be greatly appreciated.

There will be two drive up/drop off locations for this collection: the east parking lot and the west parking lot. On Sunday night, only the east parking lot will be open.

Monetary donations are welcomed, too. These will go to the Catholic Charities Foster Care Program.

Contact us at 480.948.7460  Patti Sills-Trausch at ext 130 or socialconcerns@thecasa.org, or Laura Libertore at ext 156 or laura@thecasa.org.

Take That First Step

As I sit here trying to find something witty to write, I am coming up with a horrible case of writer’s block. Maybe the fact that it is a Monday morning and my mind is already thinking about a few days at the beach isn't helping matters. Or I am putting pressure on myself to write something worthy of the Vision Corner.

Look at all of those excuses to not act. It seems like it is always easier to do nothing, or just set it aside. However, the more I act, the more I type, the more my mind opens to new ideas I want to discuss. I have gotten this far along with this version of the Vision Corner just by choosing to do something — taking a small step.

I am not being asked to write a novel, just a small article for the church bulletin. Why was I putting so much pressure on myself? In some ways, it is the same mind-set within the sustainability of the FRC. None of us have ever been asked to carry the entire load. Think of all of those excuses you might have told yourself when you came down with a case of “giver’s block.” “I don’t have a lot of money.” “I’m going to sleep on it.”

Many of you have been sleeping on it for a while now. I ask that you just take that first step. Get past whatever it is that might be blocking you.

Just as I am getting over my block of writing this Vision Corner, I ask that you find a way over, around, or through what is blocking you and your participation in the Tau Society. Your small, first step will help so many who have real obstacles creating blocks in their lives.
